

INDIGENOUS RESISTANCE IN HONDURAS

An Update on COPINH

SATURDAY, MAY 21 | 7:00PM

Albuquerque Center for Peace & Justice

202 Harvard Dr SE, Albuquerque, New Mexico 87106

This is a unique opportunity to hear from Jeanette Charles of Witness for Peace. Jeanette was with Berta Caceres in Honduras during her last action against the dam before she was murdered. Jeanette traveled to Honduras to provide protective accompaniment to the members of Berta's organization COPINH in the weeks that followed.

This is a rare chance hear a firsthand account of the aftermath of Berta's murder and the ways people are working towards justice. Jeanette will also talk about ways we can support the struggle.

Organized by (un)Occupy Abq and the Indigenous Rights Center

No entry fee Donations to help support COPINH welcome.
