For the first time in 30 years, New Mexico may open our doors to uranium mining. Even while we are burdened with billions of dollars of waste to cleanup, NM is considering allowing the Canadian co. Strathmore Minerals and Japanese co. Sumitomo to open the Roca Honda Mine. Roca Honda is a conventional underground mine proposed on Mt. Taylor, north of Grants.

SAY NO TO URANIUM MINING

DEMONSTRATION: Friday, May 31st 4:00-5:30PM
Forest Service Office, 2113 Osuna NE, west of Jefferson

PUBLIC COMMENT DEADLINE: June 13th (Extended)

TAKE A MINUTE TO CONTACT THE FOREST SERVICE OFFICE

SEND LETTERS TO:
Forest Supervisor
Cibola National Forest & Grasslands
2113 Osuna Rd. NE
Albuquerque, NM 87113

CALL: (505) 346-3900
EMAIL: comments-southwestern-cibola@fs.fed.us

MORE INFORMATION:
indigenousaction.org // unoccupyabq.org